

In Support of VOICES

“Upholding the Rights and Dignity of Nursing Home Residents”

Tentative Schedule of Events and Other Information

Date: Sunday, November 8, 2009

Time: 2:00 to 5:00 PM

Place: St. Mary’s Medical Center, Manor Auditorium

~~~~~

- |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                            |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 2:00-3:00 Exhibitor Booths         Demonstrations         Historical Displays         Military Vehicle Displays                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Door Prizes         Refreshments (cash bar for beer and wine)         Photo Opportunities |
| 3:00-4:00 Welcome by Emcee, Mike Blake, and Flag Ceremony         Opening Song by Gina Moore         “The Original MASH” presented by Dr. and Mrs. Dale Drake         Men and Women in Uniform: A Look Back at Military Fashions         Military Humor or Fond Remembrances from our Heroes         Closing Song by Gina Moore |                                                                                                            |
| 4:00-5:00 Music by the Temple Aires and Dancing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                            |
| 5:00 Close                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                            |